This document is due to change as we have just purchased Pathways to Writing

Text Map to Show Progression in Reading Skills - EYFS - 2022/2023

	Term 1	Term 2	Term 3	Term 4	Term 5	Term 6
Text and Author	Titch Pumpkin Soup (Harvest) That's When I am Happy Ruby's Worry	The story of Guy Fawkes Elmer Owl Babies The Stick Man The Christmas Story	Non-fiction books / texts about sea creatures / pollution. Tiddler The Rainbow Fish The Fish Who Could Wish George Saves the World by Lunchtime	The Tiny Seed World Book Day – a range of stories, poetry The Easter Story	Non-fiction texts / books about dinosaurs. Harry and the dinosaurs books Dear dinosaur Dinosaur Poems	What the ladybird heard. Jasper's Beanstalk A Seed in Need The Very Hungry Caterpillar Non-fiction texts about growing, minibeasts and garden wildlife.
Genre	Fiction Non-Fiction (Planting the trees of Kenya)	Fiction Historical recount Christmas recount	Fiction Non-Fiction Poetry Independence Resilience	Fiction Non-Fiction Easter recount	Fiction Non-fiction Poetry	Fiction Non-fiction
Reason for choosing text and Reading Skills covered , inc vocabulary, grammar and content	Titch:Opens up a discussion aboutFamily / names / place infamily / different names fordifferent family members e.g.nan, grandma, nanny, nanna,granny.It opens up discussions aboutchildren's own families andthat there can be differenttypes of families.	Elmer: We focussed on listening to stories and talking about what happens in them. We encouraged the children to talk about the story. Key vocab: Special / unique	Tiddler: Good for repetitive language, rhyme. Making up own tales. The Rainbow Fish: Useful for revisiting earlier work on friendship and sharing. We use this story for	The Tiny Seed: This book has quite a lot of text, so will require the children to concentrate and listen carefully. It is a slightly more mature text that the children have been used to, but it is by the same author as The	Dear Dinosaur: Focus on letter writing. This is an interactive book with letters and cards to open. It inspires children to attempt to write their own letters. Harry and the	What the Ladybird Heard: This is a good story for focussing on listening. Good for funny characters, rhyming sentences and an interesting story line. A seed in need:

	Owl Babies:	character work, and	Very Hungry	dinosaurs:	This is an interesting
Pumpkin Soup:	Used for vocabulary	drama.	Caterpillar, which will	The dinosaurs go on	book for the children
Harvest themed vocab.	linked to the topic:		be familiar to many of	lots of adventures,	as the book is in two Following instructions –	nocturnal / diurnal, day /	The Fish Who Could	the children. The 🕺 🐳	which promotes the	parts. There are simple children followed	night, light / dark	Wish:	vocabulary is linked	children thinking	sentences across the instructions to make soup.	The Stick Man	This book was good for	well to the topic, and	imaginatively and	page and more
	Used for listening to sto-	continuing work on	covers information on	coming up with their	detailed dialogue boxes
That's When I am Happy	ries, accurately anticipat-	characters, as the fish	the seasons.	own ideas for	on the pages for more / Ruby's Worry:	ing key events and re-	is quite a different		adventures!	advanced readers. The 5 5 NO 0	spond to what they hear	character to the	World Book Day:	There is also lots of	sentences could be
Helps the childr en to	with relevant comments,	rainbow fi s h, so it was	This will be a variety of	lovely dinosaur themed	accessed independently recognise feelings and	questions or actions.	good for comparison.	texts to encourage an	vocabulary.	by some of the emotions.	Repetitive language and		enjoyment of stories		children. It expands Opens up discuss ions	rhyme.	Non-Fiction texts	and a love of reading.	Nonfiction texts	upon earlier work on about iden tifying feelings	Vocab: story / rhyme	about sea creatures		about dinosaurs:	the Spring work in The
in themsel ves and others.	/ hot seating	and Pollution:	The Easter Story:	The dinosaur	Tiny Seed, but
Key Vocab:	,	These text s will have	This will build upon the	information we learn	progresses further to Emotion / feelings / happy	The Christmas Storu:	more complex	earlier learning of why	abo ut can be quite	teach about the plant / sad / scared / excited /	Useful for looking at	vocabulary. They will	Christians celebrate	complex. It allows the	cycle.
worried / surprised	the Christmas Story,	introduce children to	events.	children to learn new learning about why	unusual sea creatures,		vocabulary linked to Christians celebrate	their habitats, the		our topic. The writing	Jasper's Beanstalk:
	Christmas, the	layers of the ocean.		is descriptive, and	This story helps the characters in the		/ /	helps the children to	children with Christmas story. New	George Saves the		learn t o describe	sequencing a story.
	Vocabulary, such as	World by Lunchtime:		dinosaurs, which we	Whilst it is a simple manger.	Introducing the		then use for writing	story, it allows for a
	,	vocabulary reuse,		'Who am I?' dinosaur	good focus on recycle, reduce.		clues.	comprehension, because the children have a solid
M/			1		understanding of the
	of GUD Michiek			\mathcal{D}	text.
		A DILLING SA
					The Very Hungry Caterpillar:
					This story is useful as it has familiarity, which is good for sequencing.

	Head I				1-2010
	Term 1	Term 2	Term 3	Term 4	Term 5	Term 6
Text and Author	1. We're going	1. Winnie the	Princ e ss knight	The hundred decker	Gardens of Stanley	Winnie at the
	on a bear	witch Korky	Corn e lia Funke	bus Mike Smith.	Street Mandy Ross	seaside Korky Paul hunt, Michael	Paul.	The knight who	All aboard for the	The Mango Tree	Mrs Armitage
	Rosen .	2. Bonfire nig h t	wouldn't fight Helen	bobo road Stephen	Jamila Gavin	stories quentin
	2. Superhero	poems	Docherty 🗸 🖉	Davies	Camille and the	Blake dad Timothy	Various	Beauty and the	Emma Jane's	sunflowers Laurence	Barnaby at the Knapman and	authors ,	beast	aeroplane Katie	Anholt	seaside BBC
	Superhero	3. Christmas 📶	The three billy goats	Haworth	Percy the Parkeeper	The lighthouse
	mum Timothy	stories, The	gruff	Non-fiction	Nick Butterworth	keeper's lunch Knapman	red sled Lita	. Instead we did an	transport texts	$\langle - \rangle$	Ronda and David
	3. Supertato	Judge	extended focus on	Various authors.		Armitage
	Sue Hendra	4. Santa's	castles using online			Flotsam
	4. Elean or's	special letter	resources.
	eyebrows	Gail Yerrill	Independence
	Timothy		Resilience
	Knapman		Brain Power
	5. Non-fictionbooks		Creativity
Genre	Recount	Recount	Recount	Recount	Recount	Instructional writing
	Retelling (inc Role play)	Retelling (inc Role play)	Descriptions	Diary writing	Poetry	Recount
	Descriptions	Descriptions	Retelling including role	Adventure stories	Non-fiction writing	Adventure stories
	Postcards	Letter writing	play	Poetry	Diary writing
	Colourful Semantics	Poems and rhymes	A Fairy tales and	Non-fiction writing
	Speaking and listening	Non-fiction writing	traditional tales adventure story

Text Map to Show Progression in Reading Skills - Year 1 - 2022/23

			writing
Reason for choosing text and Reading Skills covered , inc vocabulary, grammar and content	 Recognise and automatically join in with predictable phrases in poems and stories. Familiarity with an author (timothy Knapman) Appreciate some rhymes and poems; recite some by heart. 1a: draw on knowledge of vocabulary to understand texts, Discuss the meanings of new words, linking them to words already known. Discuss and clarify the meanings of more challenging words, using other known vocabulary to support explanation. Linked to colourful semantics for who is doing to what to what. Listen to discuss and enjoy a wide range of poems and stories at a level beyond that which they can read independently. Linked to science topic. Listen to, discuss and enjoy a range of non-fiction texts; draw on what they already know, and on 	 Link to topic, children find a funny book. 1a: draw on knowledge of vocabulary to understand texts, Discuss the meanings of new words, linking them to words already known. Discuss and clarify the meanings of more challenging words, using other known vocabulary to support explanation. Linked to firework night so relevant to children's experi- ences. Appreciate some rhymes and po- ems; recite some by heart. Recognise and automatically join in with predictable phrases in poems and stories. Devel- oping their vocabu- lary in conjunction with their phonic knowledge. Story without words, to encourage children 	Female role model, alternative view of traditional tales, familiar traditional tales and fairy stories 1b: identify / explain key aspects of fiction and non-fiction texts, such as characters, events, titles and information. 1c: identify and explain the sequence of events in texts. • Become familiar with / securely know key stories, fairy stories and traditional tales; retell them; know their characteristics. Retell in writing and orally with confidence. • Recognise and automatically join in with predictable phrases in poems and stories.	Stories from other cultures, rich illustrations to pro- mote discussion (Talk for writing) 1b: identify / explain key aspects of fiction and non- fiction texts, such as char- acters, events, titles and information Link what they read to their own experiences Understand and explain how the title relates to the events or information within the text. Make useful contributions in discussion about what is read to them, respond- ing to what others say. 1c: identify and explain the sequence of events in texts Listen to, discuss and enjoy a wide range of poems and stories at a level beyond that which they can read independently, join in discussions; raise questions; explain opinions Listen to, discuss and enjoy a range of non-fiction texts; draw on what they already know, and on background information and vocabulary provided by the teacher.	Links to famous people and other cultures, link to science topic. 1d: make inferences from the text Make inferences with confidence, on the basis of what is said and done. 1e: predict what might happen on the basis of what has been read so far Make credible predictions on the basis of what has been read so far.	Rich vocabulary, especially descriptive language. Links to subject specific language. 1d: make inferences from the text Make inferences with confidence, on the basis of what is said and done. 1e: predict what might happen on the basis of what has been read so far Make credible predictions on the basis of what has been read so far. Story without words, to encourage children to use and develop vocabulary. Read some phonically- decodable books, closely matched to phonic knowledge.

Resilience

Brain Power

Text Map to Show Progression in Reading Skills – Year 2 – 2022/23

	Term 1	Term 2	Term 3	Term 4	Term 5	Term 6
Text and Author	Clown by Quentin	Non-fiction books and	Pirates	Neil Armstrong	Jack and the Baked	Katie Morag and the
	Blake	online resources about		Helen Sharman	Beanstalk by Colin	Two Grandmothers
		Guy Fawkes	Variety of story	Tim Peake	Stimson
	The Snail and the	Remembrance Day	books about pirates			Katie Morag and the

	Whale by Julia Donaldson Amazing Grace by Mary Hoffman	World War One trenches, including Walter Tull The Owl Who Was Afraid of the Dark by Jill Tomlinson Nativity stories	Pirate poems Pirate information books	Writing Week – poetry focus	Rainforests books Non fiction books about Plants	New Pier by Mairi Hedderwick
Genre	Fiction	Non-fiction Fiction Historical Christmas poetry Christmas recount	Fiction Non fiction Poetry	Non-fiction focus Fiction Poetry	Fiction Non-fiction	Fiction
Reason for choosing text and Reading Skills covered , inc vocabulary, grammar and content	Clown focus for Recovery curriculum and emotional well being The Snail and the Whale - focus on emotional well being and friendship. It also allows an early focus on rhymes and simple retrieval of information Amazing Grace – focus on emotions and feeling secure. Includes fiction from another culture	Non fiction to introduce layout of non fiction, including contents, glossary, index etc. Books will have fairly simple layout and will be written especially for KS1/lower KS2. They will introduce some tier 2 and 3 vocabulary (subject specific). The Owl Who was Afraid of the Dark is used for repetitive language, use of adjectives and introduction of adverbs. We also look at verbs and choice of vocabulary. It is good	Pirate stories are selected to show a range of non standard English and to introduce less formal vocabulary. They are used for more complex retrieval and comprehension Poetry will be selected to show different layouts and some use of rhyme in a more formal poetic style than in The Snail and the Whale. Information books will be more detailed with more complex vocabulary than for Guy Fawkes etc. They	The focus this term is on more complex non fiction texts – with more Tier 2 and Tier 3 vocabulary. Some film clips will be used and discussed with a more grown up content – the Moon Landings. Writing week will have a poetry focus, building on The Snail and the Whale poetry and pirate poetry. We will look at different types of poetry. We will also share many stories during the week.	Jack and the Baked Beanstalk is used as an alternative retelling of a traditional tale. It includes an alternative setting and allows lots of talk about comparison with the original tale. It leads to letter writing and recounts from a different perspective. It is used for simple character comparisons. Rainforest and plant information books will continue to work on knowledge of text layout and more sophisticated vocabulary	The Katie Morag stories have more complex vocabulary and some more complex speech. They encourage talk about family relationships and allow lots of inference, prediction, retelling and characterisation.

for straightforward retrieval. Nativity stories are choses for a wealth of vocabulary and to tell the story from different viewpoints eg the Donkey's Story, the Shepherd Boys Story and Mary's Story. They are useful for characterisation.	will introduce more Tier 2 and more Tier 3 vocabulary (subject specific to pirates)
	TUURNIAM CE INFANT SCHOOL
	Independence Resilience Brain Power Creativity